

Become a Jami Ambassador

Role Description

Jami

The Mental Health Service for our Community

Help Jami in their steps towards 'transforming the landscape' of mental health. Be an advocate of Jami and a vital link for your synagogue or youth group.

---

Overview

Jami are seeking proactive and enthusiastic individuals who are looking for an exciting challenge.

If you have a good understanding of your synagogue and community, and would like to help them become more aware of mental health then this is the scheme for you.

Jami work with a variety of communities across the UK, and need your help to engage others and to spread the word further.

Is this role on-going: Yes (voluntary)

Previous training needed: No

Reporting to: Community Fundraiser

---

Purpose of Role

- For Jami to have one key contact at your synagogue across London
  - To act as an advocate of Jami for your synagogue / community
  - To facilitate engagement between Jami and your synagogue
  - To encourage community members to engage with mental health, fundraise and donate quality goods, and to take part in year-round Jami events
-

Ambassador launch, training and on-going support

Jami Ambassadors will become an integral part of our community work and engagement.

The ambassador scheme will include the following:

- Ambassador launch reception in a North-West London location
  - Mid-year brunch at Head Room Café
  - 2 half day training seminars at Jami – Ambassadors will train to deliver the introductory mental health awareness presentation, whilst gaining a deeper understanding of mental health and mental illness
  - Ambassadors will receive quarterly emails updating on Jami's work and key messages
  - Invitations to exclusive Jami events, courses and workshops, with admission at a discounted price
  - Resource Pack - featuring a variety of resources and activities to aid community programming
-

Become a Jami Ambassador

Role Description

Jami

The Mental Health Service for our Community

Duties and Responsibilities

- Ensure latest Jami literature is available within your synagogue office / on synagogue noticeboards
  - To ensure Jami is considered as a beneficiary by relevant committees at High Holy day appeals and other community fundraisers
  - To promote attendance of shul members at Jami events
  - To offer Jami speakers and training opportunities as part of your synagogue's programme of activities (liaising with Jami Head Room team)
  - To write / secure space for articles about Jami in synagogue newsletters and magazines
  - To focus the attention of the community on key dates e.g. World Mental Health Day on 10 October 2018 and encourage Rabbis and leadership to include within sermons.
-

Skills and Qualities Required

- A good understanding of the committees and roles within your synagogue
  - An understanding of your community and member's needs
  - A pro-active and enthusiastic approach
  - A comfortable and confident communicator
  - An understanding of the fundraising importance, and a commitment to raise funds for Jami
-

On-going Development

Ambassadors will gain and develop a thorough understanding of Jami's activities and services, as well as becoming knowledgeable on topics surrounding mental health.

Possible Skills and Qualities to Develop:

- Negotiation
  - Fundraising
  - Marketing
  - Promotion of activities
  - Presentation and delivery
-

Application Information

To download an application form please click here.

It is important for this role that your application is endorsed by your community/synagogue (Rabbi/Chairperson/Board). Please provide details of your endorser on your application in the fields provided.