

Job description

Job title	Mobile Barista
Contract	Permanent
Hours	Part time
Salary	£12.41 p/h
Service setting	Various locations in Northwest London and Hertfordshire

We are

Jami is a mental health charity that enriches and saves lives impacted by mental illness and distress in the Jewish community. Head Room Cafe is a social enterprise serving fresh, vibrant kosher food and drink. It is a community hub, bringing awareness, education and access to mental health support to the high street.

We are looking for a passionate and empathetic Barista to join 'Head Room To Go'. This is a standalone role, working in the community on our fully fitted out converted Mobile Coffee Float 'Head Room To Go'.

Working hours would generally be from 7am – 4pm with some evening work when there are events.

A full, clean drivers licence is essential for this role.

Your Role

- Preparing and serving hot and cold drinks
- Cleaning and sanitising work areas, utensils, and equipment
- Sharing information about Jami and the work that we do in the community
- Following all food safety and health safety requirements, including daily fridge and food temperature checks
- Serving customers and taking orders
- Liaising with our café manager for ordering, organising and keeping on top of stock levels

- Receiving and processing customer payments
- Opening and closing the coffee float
- Picking coffee float up, following planned routes, and returning to designated charging spot
- Attending training related to food and drink as well as mental health

Required Training and Qualifications

- Full, clean drivers' licence
- Passionate about customer service
- Able to work under pressure and confident working in a standalone role.
- Experience gained in a Team leader/ Supervisor role
- Comfortable with EPOS software
- Basic math skills
- Experience and knowledge of the Jewish community and Kashrut laws (desirable)
- Food safety level 2 Certificate (desirable)
- Barista training (desirable)

Disclosure of criminal background

All employees are checked with the Disclosure Barring Service

If it is a requirement of the post that an enhanced check is undertaken, successful applicants will be asked to complete and sign a Disclosure Form giving permission for the screening to take place.

Having a criminal record will not necessarily bar you from working with Jami. This will depend on the nature of the position and the circumstances and background of offences.

Please note applicants refusing to sign the form will not be progressed further.

Equality and diversity

Jami are proud to be an equal opportunity workplace. We recognise and promote, the positive value of diversity, equality and challenge discrimination. We welcome and encourage job applications from people of all backgrounds.

Confidentiality

All information relating to service users, volunteers and staff gained through your employment with Jami is confidential. Any disclosure to any unauthorized person is a serious disciplinary offence.
